

GUP

022.

Guide to Unique Photography
Europe € 5,-
THE RUSSIA ISSUE

a growing optimism

In recognition of his work, Simon Roberts (London, 1974) has received a wide array of prestigious awards. The book Motherland is a visual statement about a dignified people, 15 years after the collapse of the Soviet Union. Instead of clichés of poverty and despair, Roberts presents images of optimistic Russians and beautiful landscapes in a country still so marked by its history.

