▼ Landscape Photographer of the Year

National Theatre, South Bank, London, SE1 9PX; 020 7452 3000; www.take-a-view.co.uk;
from 5 December until 24 January 2010

From salt marshes, chalk cliffs and ancient woodland, to historic villages, parklands and cityscapes, the 'Landscape Photographer of the Year' exhibits the interaction between people and places. Embracing British Heritage, residents of Britain and visitors have captured in images the essence that best symbolises our land and our times.

LES FORRESTER

▼ World Press Photo 2009

Royal Festival Hall, Southbank Centre, Belvedere Road, London, SE1 8XX; 020 7921 0600; www.southbankcentre.co.uk;
from 27 November until 13 December

From the prestigious World Press Photo competition, 196 award-winning photographs from around the globe will be on display in the 52nd annual exhibition. Reflecting the trends and developments within photojournalism, this exhibition captures the most powerful and moving press images of the year. A retrospective of world events throughout 2009 includes news, nature, portraits, arts and entertainment, sports and daily life.

ANTHONY SUAU

WEEGEE THE FAMOUS

▲ Weegee the famous - It's a Crime to Take Photographs This Good...

Michael Hoppen Gallery, 3 Jubilee Place, London, SW3 3TD; 020 7352 3649; www.michaelhoppengallery.com;
from 30 November until 10 January 2010

This exhibition presents a collection of photographs taken by Weegee the Famous in the early days of his career. The selection includes never-seen-before images in the UK. Weegee's iconic and voyeuristic eye caught New York City throughout the 1930s and 1940s. He sought out the harsh realities of the urban experience. Images by Sergei Vasiliev and Stan Healy will also be on display.

SIMON ROBERTS/CHRIS BOOT LTD

▲ We English

South Hill Park, Ringmead, Bracknell, Berkshire, RG12 7PA;
01344 484123; www.southhillpark.org.uk; from 28 November to 24 January 2010

We English is the result of Simon Roberts' 12-month tour around his homeland in a motorhome. Documenting quintessential English culture in a large format from a 5x4 camera, Roberts explores what it means to be English. Informed by the romantic tradition of landscape painting, his images focus on the ways in which people congregate and interact within the landscape, through the common purpose of leisure.
